About the building

Get the most from your business's workspace and choose flexible, modern and ready-to-use office space in West London. The UK's capital city has an array of opportunities to be taken advantage of, and One Olympia contains places to grab a bite to eat, experience the city's culture and network with like-minded professionals. Catch the tube from Kensington Olympia Underground Station into Central London and access Euston Station, 8.3km away, to connect with the rest of the UK. Or why not take your business international and jet off from Heathrow Airport just 21.2km away? If clients are joining you, you're just a short drive from Hammersmith Apollo, where you can watch some world-class entertainment with your guests. Invite contacts to your spacious and fully equipped meeting rooms for pitches, presentations and talks. The video conferencing technology and widescreen TVs make discussing ideas easy and seamless, whilst the business-grade WiFi ensures excellent connection. Take your lunch breaks to Kensington Gardens and enjoy the fresh air, but only after stopping at one of the many restaurants available along Kensington High Street. In the afternoon, return to your open-plan offices an
