About the building

There’s more than meets the eye at this stunning centre overlooking St Paul’s and the London Eye. 60 Cannon Street is impressively located in the heart of London’s financial district, surrounded by global names in banking and commerce and with views of St Paul’s Cathedral and the London Eye. But there’s much more to it than its sought-after situation. Here you’ll discover the perfect place to grow your business, in inspiring designer workspaces where your productivity will soar. Find the flexible, fully-equipped space to suit you, whether you’re looking for private or shared offices or to hire a meeting room in London. It’s the ideal place to connect and network with our buzzing business community of entrepreneurs. There are shops, restaurants and a regular food market at One New Change, just four minutes’ walk. Pause to think at nearby Whittington Gardens or spark your next big idea at a visit to St Paul’s, the Roman museum at London Mithraeum and the Queenhithe Mosaic. Tate Modern and the Globe Theatre are a short walk across Millennium Bridge. There’s a bus stop on the doorstep and Mansion House Tube Station is just one minute away, with Cannon Street Tube and train stations two
