About the building

Our construction team are currently busy building this location, another new location in our 4000+ network that enables people all over the world to work closer to where they need to be. We will bring you specific details about this location soon, but all our workspaces are designed with professionalism and your productivity in mind. From our ergonomic furniture to ambient lighting and all the facilities you are going to need on site including shared amenities like kitchens and break-out space. Our workspaces cater for a range of workstyles whether you just want to drop into our business lounge, coworking space or need an office for the day or meeting room for the hour. We also have long term solutions such as offices which come ready to go or you can fully customize them, or a dedicated coworking desk. Everyone of our locations can also be used as a postal address for your business by setting up a Virtual Office. The community team look forward to welcoming you very soon, if you are interested in this location, please don’t hesitate to get in touch with our team.
