About the building

A first-rate workspace in upmarket Hammersmith. At last! A co-working space that’s as original, fashionable and refined as the neighbourhood it stands in. Four storeys high and decked out in twinkly glass panels, The Foundry certainly doesn’t blend into the background. Whether you’re after a meeting room to host clients, a cosy booth to digest a new brief or a workstation to connect with other freelancers, you won’t be short of options here in Hammersmith. Newly developed from its previous 80s incarnation, these post-industrial serviced offices look to be the premier destination for progressive entrepreneurs. From the huge double-height reception complete with feature lighting, to the fern-filled roof terrace – a destination in its own right – and the free squash court, you and your clients are in for a treat. The Foundry is just minutes away from Hammersmith Underground Station, while motorists will appreciate quick access to the M4 towards Heathrow.
