About the building

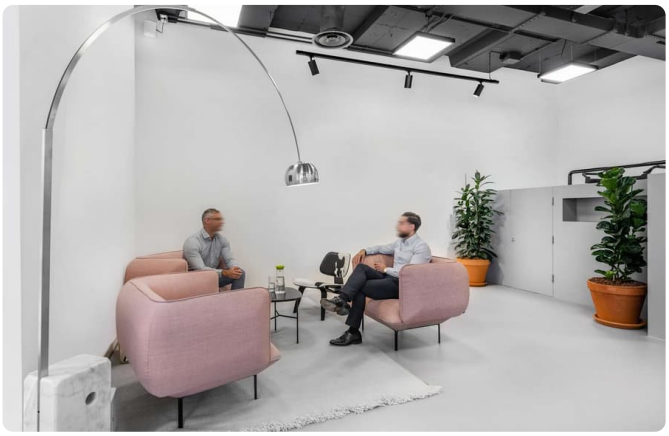

Baker Street is famous the world over as the home of Sherlock Holmes, but you won't need a detective to work out why basing your business at our centre will see it thrive. You're in sought-after Marylebone, surrounded by chic boutiques and cafes as well as medical, educational, media and fashion businesses. Find the flexible, fully-equipped workspace to solve your business needs, whether you're looking for private or shared offices or to hire a meeting room in London. Your productivity will soar in these inspiring designer spaces. Head up to the beautiful roof terrace for stunning views. It's the perfect spot to sip your killer cup of coffee or post-work drinks while networking with our buzzing business community of entrepreneurs. The area is a vibrant mix of shops, bars and restaurants. Take a stroll to Regent's Park or Montagu Square and its Blue Plaque marking where John Lennon lived, or watch a match at Lord's Cricket Ground. Spark your creativity with a visit to The Sherlock Holmes Museum, Marble Arch or Madame Tussauds. You're two minutes from a bus stop, Baker Street Tube Station is just a five-minute walk and London Marylebone train station is 10 minutes.
