About the building

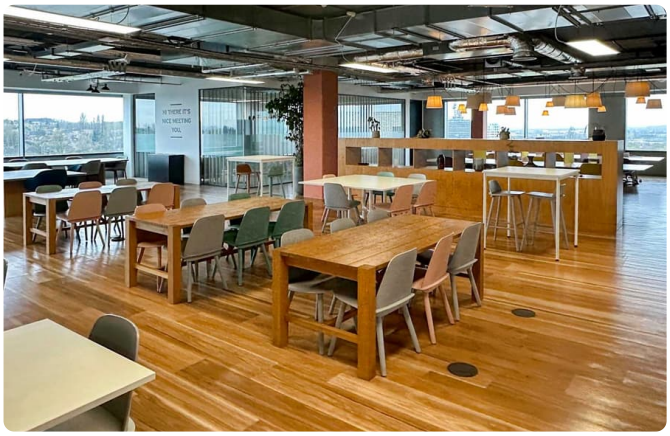

Give your business a place to thrive in London’s largest business park. From the surrounding landscaped gardens and distinctive exterior design, to its light and modern interior, our office space First Central 200 is sure to impress any visitors who join you. The minimal, contemporary design continues throughout the business lounges and meeting rooms, providing the perfect venue to work with clients. And when business is cause for celebration explore one of the many restaurants located nearby around the site.
