About the building

Our 239 Kensington High Street offices are the embodiment of modern architecture. Impress clients from the moment they step foot into the building with its light and airy Grade A reception. With the High Street Kensington underground station just a few minutes' walk away and Paddington overground station close by too, you'll be able to welcome clients from across London. When you feel like taking a break, relax and enjoy the pleasant Hyde Park, located within walking distance of the office.
